Chicago Trip

On Thursday, April 3, 1980, the Senior class took their class trip to the great "Windy" city of Chicago. They toured such sites as the Police Station, Chicago Board of Trade, Marshall Fields Department Store, and Museum of Science and Industry. The final highlight of the day was an extravagant meal at the Pinnacle, a revolving restaurant in the heart of downtown Chicago.

Advisor's Note

The Highlighter staff did a fine job of reporting the happenings of a large senior class, as well as other school news. By using a smaller type, the paper was enlarged and several new columns were added. The duties of editor, assistant editor, copy editor, and assistant copy editor, were again shared among the class. I was proud to work with the group of Journalism students who ushered in the 1980 decade of The Highlighter!

In April of this year the FHA once again held their annual Rockathon. The money raised was donated to the Children's Hospital in Columbus. Because of the girls' spectacular job they received the honor of placing second in the state and obtained a plaque for an award. The rocking began at 3:30 on Friday and continued for twenty-four hours until 3:30 on Saturday. During the event, entertainment was provided by a local band, Diamond. Congratulations go to everyone involved for a job well done.

This year proved very successful for us. We were able to remain undefeated during the regular season and advance to district finals in tournament. The greatest asset of the team was its ability to work together as a close-knit group of young men.

This team became the first team to hold the other teams to less than 30 points. There were only 5 teams that scored over 30 points. It was a balanced team with no one star, but every boy contributing to the second best winning records. They played only 19 games and fell one victory short with a 17 and 2 record.

Rockhold's Market

They go on your ears, Dillrod!

Cinny been losing weight?

I'm here!

I confess, I did it!

What you talking about, Connie?

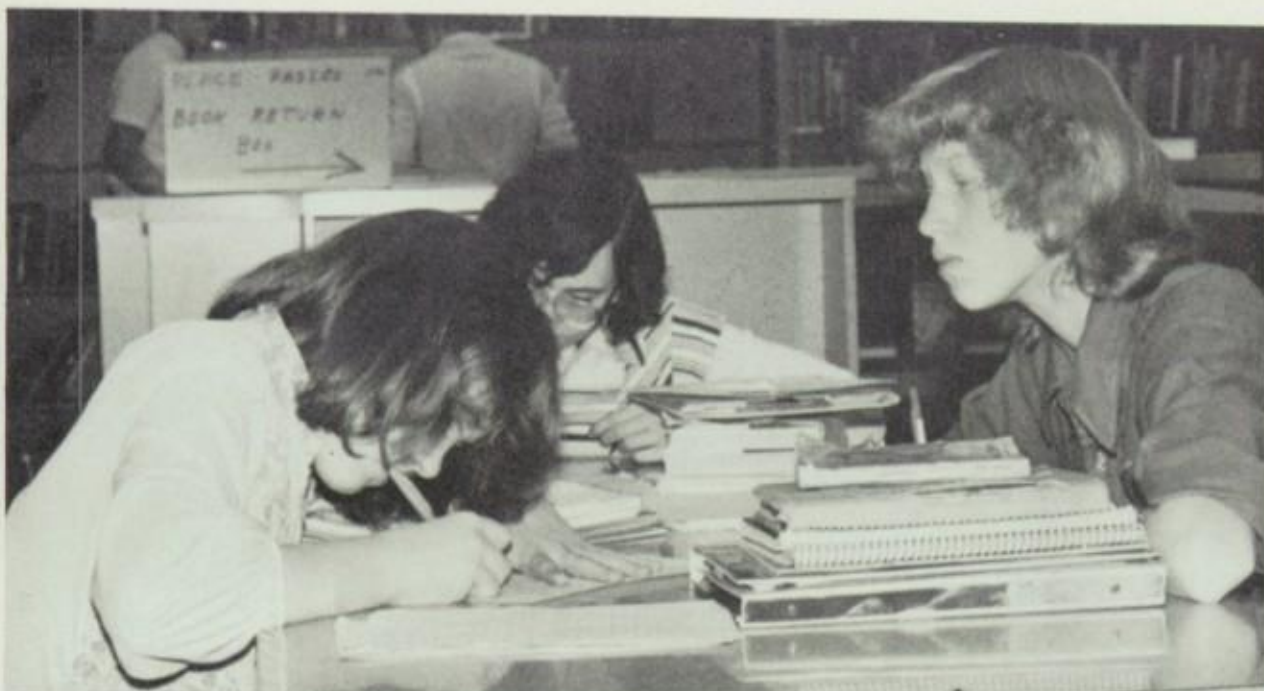

What a profile?

A rose between two thorns

Are you sure that's the answer?

What did you get for No. 3?

You didn't read us our rights!

Where'd you get those eyes?

Just call me Hercules.

Did I make that?

Hang in there, Kermit!

Anything you say!

But I promise not to step on your toes!

thank you for spending this most memorable
year with us
